Come Closer: What is ALSA?

The ASEAN Law Students' Association (ALSA) was officially established on the 18th of May, 1989, by a collective of law students hailing from Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, and the Philippines. The foundational accord of ALSA was formalized in Jakarta during the ALSA Conference held in 1989. The transformative developments during that period were deemed critical, given that the organization assumed a significant role in harmonizing diverse legal backgrounds across various countries.

This accord stipulated the consolidation of ALSA into a singular association, a decision ratified by unanimous resolution by entities, including the ASEAN Law Students' Association, the East Asian Law Students' Association, the International Department of Legal Aid Association of Peking University, LA HKUSU, ALSA Japan, ALSA Korea, and ALSA Taiwan. This consolidation transpired under a new nomenclature, the Asian Law Students' Association, still referenced by its abbreviation, ALSA.

This endeavor was guided by the vision and mission akin to those of the European Law Students' Association in 2002.

Subsequently, following the Korea Conference and the Asian Forum convened in Japan, ALSA expanded its substantial influence by entering into the Tokyo Agreement on the 7th of September, 2002.

In contemporary times, ALSA is widely recognized as a non-governmental and apolitical organization. Its membership encompasses over 16 national chapters, including those of Indonesia, Singapore, Malaysia, Brunei Darussalam, the Philippines, Macau, Laos, Thailand, South Korea, Vietnam, China, Hong Kong, Sri Lanka, Taiwan, Myanmar, and India.

Our Home: About ALSA LC Unud

The Asian Law Students' Association Local Chapter of Universitas Udayana (ALSA LC Unud) was officially established as the 13th Local Chapter of ALSA Indonesia on the 13th of March, 2012, during the 19th National Congress (Munas XIX) of ALSA NC Indonesia held in Kaliurang, Yogyakarta. The inception of ALSA LC Unud can be traced back to the pivotal roles played by two distinguished figures in our history, namely Nyoman Wicaksana Wirajati (Founder) and Keshia Sifra, who served as the President of ALSA Indonesia from 2010 to 2011.

The initiation of ALSA LC Unud was marked by Universitas Udayana's participation in the National Moot Court Competition (NMCC) Supreme Court Trophy Purwokerto Cup and its co-hosting of an International Seminar and Study Trip organized by ALSA in 2010. Shortly thereafter, we were invited as Observers to events such as the 18th National Congress (Munas XVIII) in Aceh, the 18th National Seminar (Semnas XVIII) in Surabaya, and the 17th Pre-National Congress (Pramunas XVII) in Malang. Additionally, we successfully collaborated on the Study Trip and Diplomatic Course (STDC) organized by ALSA-ISAFIS. Following our official recognition as a Local Chapter during the 19th National Congress in Kaliurang, Yogyakarta, I Gede Bagus Ananda Pratama was appointed as the first Director of ALSA LC Unud during the 1st Local Chapter Meeting (Muslok I) of ALSA LC Unud in Denpasar, Bali.
