As an extraordinary law students' organization across Asia, ALSA has consistently provided its members with numerous wonderful moments throughout their journey with ALSA. These moments are incredibly precious and too good to be missed. And to truly savor every second of these wondrous moments, YOU HAD TO BE THERE!

With the theme we've chosen for this season's ATRIBUL, we hope to bring our beloved readers along to experience the special moments of the season with us through our publication. We believe that an experience or moment is difficult to fully appreciate or understand unless one was physically present at the time it occurred.

Just like the wise saying goes, "Don't miss the moments because it's all we have." But in case you missed it and can't be there, we are here to provide you with a recap of this wonderful season in ALSA LC Unud!

YOU HAD
